Win a Ride in a Racing Jet!

Fly with Curt Brown, former NASA Space Shuttle Commander, USAF fighter pilot and three time Reno Jet Class winner.

You will actually be able to take the stick yourself and experience the thrill of flying a fighter jet.

One ticket: $10, three for $25

Get a free T-shirt!

Each day, the first 50 ticket purchasers at the Jet Class pit (next to the military display, NO pit pass required!) will get a FREE Viper or Pipsqueak T-Shirt.

The Jet ride will be given Saturday, September 19, 2009 after the course closes. The winner will be announced over the PA system, phone and/or email.

Proceeds from the sales of tickets will support the Cancer Care Connection. The CCC mission is to provide cancer sufferers the information they need to make informed decisions on their own behalf to obtain the best possible outcome.

The Cancer Care Connection employs masters' level professionals as trained specialists in the field of cancer. They effectively and efficiently support the complex needs of patients, care givers, and the extensive support network of people affected by cancer. CCC trained coach's help people immediately address issues that often get missed.
